Dear General:

25X1A

[REDACTED] came in to see me on Monday and although we couldn't remember where we had met, I was pleased to see him again. I should think his background and experience could be of use to us and accordingly arranged appropriate interviews. He may submit a memorandum of his experiences to us here, in which case he will send you a copy and save you the trouble of forwarding it down here.

We always find these referrals from you interesting and appreciate your continued help.

25X1A

I hope you have a good trip and, incidentally, [REDACTED] may get in touch with you in connection with the [REDACTED] case, as he was upset by the apparent lack of jurisdiction. I am doing some checking here.

Sincerely yours,
